MADE IT PERMANENT

Receiver Latimer Will Wind Up the First National.

PERMANENT APPOINTMENT

It Was Made by Comptroller Eckels—Bank Books Shipped to Jefferson City.

W. A. Latimer returned yesterday afternoon from Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Md., in which latter city he attended a convention of national bank examiners.

While in Washington, Mr. Latimer was informed by Comptroller Eckels that he (Latimer) would have to wind up the affairs of the First National bank here, and his appointment as receiver was made permanent.

Mr. Latimer was seen by a DEMOCRAT reporter today and stated that his appointment as permanent receiver was in opposition to his wishes, but Mr. Eckels expressed a desire that he (Latimer) should wind up the bank's business and he reluctantly consented.

"I hope," said the receiver, "to be able to put myself on half pay, so far as the receivership is concerned, at the expiration of twelve months from the date of the failure, notwithstanding it generally requires two years for a receiver to do this."

"By half pay I do not mean that all of the business will have been disposed of in a year, but enough of it will have been settled to enable me to devote one-half of my time to other matters."

"Does this mean that you will resign as bank examiner, Mr. Latimer?"

"Oh, no; I was assured that when my duties as receiver were concluded my old position, or something equally as good, would be ready for me."

A number of the books of the defunct First National were boxed up this morning and forwarded to Jefferson City by express. They included those in which false entries are laid at the door of the absconding cashier, Mr. J. C. Thompson, and will be presented before the United States grand jury, with a view to securing the indictment of the fugitive.

That this will be done is assured, and it is also assured, it is said, that the United States government will leave nothing undone to bring about the extradition of the fugitive, in case he does not leave Old Mexico and seek refuge in Honduras.

Receiver Latimer left for the state capital this forenoon and was accompanied by Font Merriwether, late book-keeper in the defunct bank, both of whom will appear before the grand jury as witnesses.

When interrogated, Mr. Latimer stated that he certainly expected to secure the indictment of Mr. Thompson, but as to whether or not he anticipated other indictments, he was non-committal.

It is known that Mr. Thompson was considerably worried when he learned of the conviction of A. B. Crawford, of the defunct American National bank at Springfield, whose crookedness is alleged to have been as a drop in the bucket compared to the ex-Sedalian's, and there are those who have their doubts about his being in the City of Mexico at present.

A Pleasant Time Assured.

Friemel's full orchestra will furnish the music for the A. O. U. W. ball tomorrow night. This announcement assures a pleasant time for all who attend, as no better orchestra could have been found to furnish the music for an occasion that will be memorable in Sedalia.

Will Be No Matinee.

The James J. Corbett "Gentleman Jack" company will not give a matinee at Wood's opera house next Saturday afternoon, as at first supposed, but will appear at night only. Tickets have already been ordered from several neighbor towns, and an immense audience will surely greet the world's champion.

A FLIM-FLAM GAME.

McCracken, the Paving Contractor, Bobs Up Once More.

A sleek stranger flim-flamed Squires & Shelton, of Windsor, out of a suit of clothes in the highest style of flim-flam art the other day, says the Clinton Democrat.

He gave the name of W. M. McCracken and pretended to be a sidewalk contractor. He induced them to make a contract for a handsome new cement walk in front of their store and bought $37.50 worth of clothing on the strength of the contract.

Then he had to go to Sedalia and promised to return next day. Mr. Squires had a lot of gravel and cement hauled and the old walk torn up. He then patiently waited for Mr. McCracken to return. And lo, he is still waiting.

This is probably the McCracken who resided in Sedalia a few years ago, and whose wife went to the bad because of his desertion of her.

LOCATED AT LIBERTY.

That City Gets the Odd Fellows' Orphan's Home.

Liberty gets the Odd Fellows' Orphan's home. The matter was decided at a meeting of the trustees at the Winner hotel in Liberty yesterday. The other contesting cities were: Nevada, Butler, Warrensburg and Marshall. Nevada was ably represented by Messrs. Moore and Sullivan, but could not capture the prize.

The trustees present were Messrs. Baxter, of St. Louis, Deboit, of Trenton, and Messrs. Marshall, of St. Charles, Woodward and Vogel, of St. Louis, Alexander, of Paris, Shipley, of Springfield, Rixey, of Jonesburg, and Goldman, of Liberty.

The price paid was $25,000, $17,000 of which is donated by the citizens of Liberty. The home consists of the Winner hotel, about 100 rooms completely furnished, and 12 acres of ground. The building was erected in 1888 and is well located.

THE TWO TEAMS.

An Exciting Game of Foot Ball Booked for Tomorrow Afternoon.

Following are the players, together with their positions, who will contest for foot ball honors at Association park tomorrow afternoon. Game will be called at 4:15 o'clock, and all are invited, as there is no admission fee charged. The players are:

The Remains Brought Here.

Mrs. R. G. Durham, who formerly resided in Sedalia, died in Kansas City Sunday night, of general debility, aged 68 years. The remains were brought to Sedalia at noon today, accompanied by Mrs. James Parkes, daughter of the deceased, and were interred by the side of those of her husband, Judge Robert G. Durham, who died several years ago.

A Sedalian Complimented.

A Sedalia boy was thus complimented in last Sunday's issue of the St. Joseph Chat, in a writup of the attaches of the local press:

Frank B. Moore, of the News, is an ideal newspaper man; he knows at least three thousand St. Joseph people to speak to and has each one's vulnerable point at his fingers ends.

Lacerated His Cheek.

Johnny Heitchew, the little 10-year-old son of Mrs. J. B. Heitchew, lacerated one of his cheeks in a frightful manner by a fall a couple of days ago, and has suffered considerably in consequence.

BAUGH HABEAS CORPUS.

The Case Came Up in the Circuit Court Again Today.

In the Pettis county circuit court, Special Judge B. G. Wilkerson presiding, the W. N. Baugh habeas corpus case, in which plaintiff seeks to recover the custody of his five-year-old daughter, Susie, who was given in adoption to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cue, came up again today. Defendants attorneys, Messrs. Cashman & Prigmore, filed a motion to quash the writ, but the motion was overruled. Defendants then filed their return, to which plaintiff, by his attorney, W. D. Steele, filed a reply, and the case was still pending when a recess was taken for the noon hour.

Other proceedings were had as follows: August Erlech was admitted to citizenship.

Standard Printing Co. vs John C. Tiffin; dismissed by plaintiff and judgment against plaintiff and sureties for costs.

James W. Ferguson vs Jennie Ferguson, divorce; decree granted as prayed for.

Henry Weimer was granted a divorce from his wife, Elizabeth W., on the ground of desertion.

The application for a colored school at Houstonia was set for a hearing on next Monday.

Wensel Brosch, an Austrian, was admitted to citizenship.

WORK OF A CRAZED BRAIN.

A Poor Distracted Woman Burns Herself and Three Children to Death.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Jennie Harrigan and her three children perished by fire in the barn upon their farm in the outskirts of the city yesterday. The residence also was fired. The husband and father was absent at the time of the calamity. The general belief is that Mrs. Harrigan became suddenly insane and set the house on fire; that she then took her children and went into the barn and locking the door, set the hay on fire. As the flames began to close around them attempted train robbery, and in Cooper county for burglary, was lodged in the Howard county jail Sunday night for safe-keeping. Huffman was 28 years old and was raised near Shelbyville, Mo. He says he was tried for complicity in the Otterville train robbery, but there was not sufficient evidence to convict him. He has served a term in the Boone county jail.

THE TRAIN ROBBERS.

Express company Officials Say They Are Bound to Capture the Bandits.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The Adams Express company officials say that they have things well in hand for the capture of the Quantico train robbers.

"They cannot get away from us," said Mr. Herrington. "We have the best detectives to be had and enough of them to watch every point. It makes little difference where they go, they will not escape detection; they will be hunted down."

Mr. Herrington, when asked about the failure of the express company to offer rewards for the arrest of the robbers, replied that he did not think a reward would capture them. "You cannot catch thieves by rewards," he said. "We have already begun a pursuit which will land them and it will be expensive enough without paying a reward when they are caught. It costs money to catch thieves and in this case the difficulty is greater than in many other sections. There are many ways for them to escape and, besides, there are so many places for them to hide. There are many miles of river and bay where there is no telephone connection and many creeks, inlets and uninhabited sections where men may secrete themselves. It may take time to the mother gathered her children about her and held them until they were overcome. The eldest of the children was 6 years of age and the youngest 14 months.

Mr. Harrigan is quite poor, following peddling for a living. He went to Newark yesterday morning to sell his wares. When the neighbors, attracted by the smoke, reached the Harrigan place, they found a box of wood on fire in the house and that was quickly extinguished. The flames in the barn, however, had gained such headway that nothing could be done, until the flimsy structure had been burned to the ground. It was then that the fate of Mrs. Harrigan and her three children became known. Mrs. Harrigan, who was 30 years of age, had shown no signs of insanity, though for a time she had been despondent over the circumstances of herself and family.

Quarreled Over Breckinridge.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 16.—At Turner's station, forty-four miles east of Louisville, on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, Buck Berry was shot in the abdomen by C. B. James at noon yesterday, and will probably die. The shooting arose over a discussion of Colonel Breckinridge. James is foreman of construction of the Louisville and Nashville and a cousin of Jesse James, the noted desperado.

Last Payment on the Hospital.

The Sedalia City Hospital society last evening made its last payment on the hospital building, the amount being $3,090. The structure is now owned by the society and is free of any incumbrance whatever.

Jawbone of a Mastodon Found.

George Purcell and John P. Sites, while strolling about just south of Arrow Rock, near a large spring, found the jaw tooth of a mastodon weighing six pounds. It is in a good state of preservation. Search for more of the bones will be made.

A JUDGE INJURED.

Meets With a Thrilling Experience in A Runaway.

Judge A. P. Terrill, chairman of the Randolph county democratic central committee, an accomplished lawyer and gentleman, met with a serious and painful accident yesterday afternoon, one that his friends and foes deplore.

He, with Circuit Clerk Lowell, started in a buggy from Moberly to Huntsville to file a list of the democratic nominees. The horse they were driving got frightened at a train, ran off and collided with a telegraph pole, throwing Judge Terrill out.

He fell on his shoulder and the side of his head. One ear by the fall was almost entirely torn from his head, the other one cut, and bad bruises were received on the hand and between the shoulders.

He was knocked senseless, but as soon as consciousness returned he called for the list of democratic nominees, signed the same and was conveyed to a lawyer's office. His wounds were dressed, and he was then taken to his residence. He is now resting easy and will doubtless recover.

Made a $15,000 Haul.

THE DALLES, Oregon, Oct. 16.—Saturday night $14,000 or $15,000 was sent here from Portland and F. N. Hill, express agent, and two officers took it to the express office. Yesterday it was mysteriously missing. It is thought that robbers came here on a train with the treasure box and followed it up after it arrived. Charles Tibbitts, the company's driver, sleeps in the express office, but on the night of the robbery he was attending a ball and did not return until 1 o'clock.

EVERYBODY will read next Sunday's DEMOCRAT. Business men who have announcements to make should remember this fact.

A REPUBLICAN exchange says that Tom Reed is going to tell "the truths of protection" to Michigan people. It will be a new departure for Reed, and if he tells the whole truth his party will be swept off of the political field.

THE stock in trade of the republican campaigners is Cleveland's letter against the senate tariff bill. But they are not frank enough to tell the voters why the president opposed the measure. In fact Mr. Cleveland's opposition, ill-timed and inopportune as it was, was because the bill did not cut deeper into the protective system. But the contention of the republican party is that the cuts were too deep. Such being the case, they cannot quote the president's opposition to the bill without stultifying themselves.

THE panic of 1893 was caused by recklessness and mismanagement of the Harrison administration, which squandered the surplus in the treasury at the very time when the McKinley tariff bill had cut down the revenues and turned the tide of gold from our shores. It was during the Harrison administration that our exports of gold exceeded our imports nearly $158,000,000 and destroyed that confidence which is the foundation of all business. Thus the panic was produced by republican mismanagement, and as the panic caused the industrial stagnation, that calamity can be fairly charged to the republican party.

WHAT is the cause of the A. P. A. fight against Congressman Heard, if it does not spring from partisan republican prejudices? In all of Mr. Heard's congressional career there is just one thing that the A. P. A. complains of, and that is the vote he cast, along with eight other democrats and six republicans, in favor of vacating an alley abutting the property of a Catholic college and upon closing which the real estate, according to law and custom, reverted to the college. Because it was a Catholic college that was benefited Mr. Heard is opposed by this society, but no protest has been made in any of the districts represented by republicans who voted the same way that he did. There is no pretense that Mr. Heard is a Catholic or biased in favor of the Catholic church. On the other hand it is known that he is a protestant. But because he treated a measure that benefited a Catholic school just as he would have treated it had it affected any other school, church or individual, he is opposed by this society, while not a word is said against republicans who voted just as he did. If there are democrats in the organization this fact should open their eyes as to its partisan character. It should be remembered, too, that the republicans are confidently claiming the A. P. A. vote for Col. Tracey, the republican candidate, who had not the courage to express himself as either for or against the principles and purposes of the order, even as against Mr. Tiffin who gave it his endorsement. Why?

WELCOME TO ALL.

The DEMOCRAT, on behalf of the good people of Sedalia, extends a hearty welcome to the hundreds of guests who will visit the city tomorrow to participate in the anniversary celebration by the Ancient Order of United Workmen of this city.

Sedalia is remarkable for the support it extends to fraternal and benevolent societies, and of the many that exist among us none stand higher than the A. O. U. W.

Its membership includes many of our best citizens, and the good accomplished by the order is known of all men.

The city and the whole country is better because of the existence of these fraternal societies, and many a poor widow, with her fatherless children around her, thanks God and the noble order for the help the A. O. U. W. has given her in time of trouble.

An order that accomplishes so much good to humanity deserves many pleasant anniversaries, and the DEMOCRAT hopes that tomorrow will be a day long to be remembered not only by the people of Sedalia but by the visiting brethren as well.

An excellent program has been arranged, and every loyal Sedalian, whether he belongs to the order or not, will feel himself especially commissioned to do all in his power to make the celebration a success and contribute by word and deed to the pleasure of visitors.

A LARGE, extra edition of the DEMOCRAT will be issued next Sunday, and it will be of especial interest to every citizen of Sedalia and Pettis county.

In face of the fact that Colonel Tracey declared publicly in this city that he knew nothing about the A. P. A., and refused to express an opinion concerning the organization, the republicans are claiming that the A. P. A. vote will be cast for him, and that, too, after Col. Tiffin, the populist candidate, gave the society his endorsement. Is it possible that there were strings to Col. Tracey's evasive statement, or that the A. P. A. prefers a republican candidate who dodges and refuses to say where he stands to a populist who openly and boldly champions its aims and purposes and gives it his endorsement?

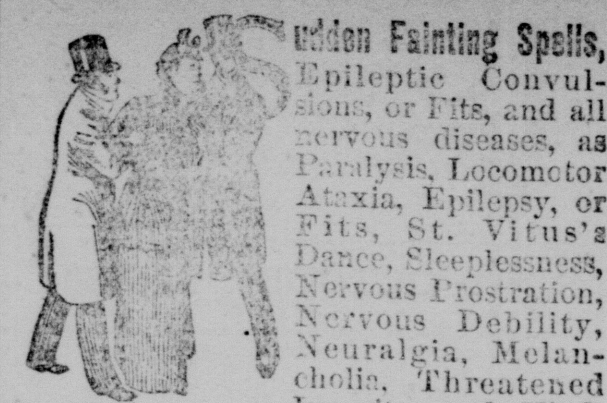

Bandit Hedgepeth's Appeal Argued. The case of the state against Marion Hedgepeth, the St. Louis & San Francisco express robber who is under sentence of thirty years in the penitentiary, was argued before division No. 2 of the supreme court yesterday, Charles T. Noland, of St. Louis, appearing for Hedgepeth and the state being represented by the attorney general. It will be a month or more before a decision is filed in the case.

Bretenstein Makes a Record. Theo. Bretenstein, of the St. Louis Browns, went over to Mascoutah, Ill., Sunday and pitched for the Trenton, Ill., club against the home team. He lost his game by a score of 5 to 4, but established a record by striking out nineteen men.

Banks Closed. All the banks, including the Missouri Trust Co., will close at 1:30 tomorrow on account of A. O. U. W. celebration. F. W. SHULTZ, Secretary Sedalia Clearing House Association.

Sunday night as the Hummer went east on the Chicago and Alton road, a sad accident happened at Gorder, by which Henry Dieter lost his life. In company with a young lady he was walking on the railroad track. The train was fast approaching them and being on an embankment they tried to reach the switch before stepping off, but they were too late. The lady jumped in time, but Dieter was hit and knocked ten feet. When picked up his neck was found to be broken.

He was examining those unfinished worsted suits at $10.00 per suit. Not knowing he had heart disease, we mentioned the price—a deathly smile, a gasp and all was over, until we injected Blair Bros.' Elixir of Life into him. He regained, recovered, bought a double-breasted all wool suit for $10.00, a good heavy stylish overcoat for $4.00, a shirt for 50 cents, a cap for a quarter, a pair of warm gloves for 50 cents, a pair of boys' pants for 10 cents, a 17-year-old boy's suit for $2.50, repaired to his family fire-side, kissed Jane, hugged Sallie, tickled Lizzie under the chin, had prayer and is now holding sweet converse with the angels above, in whose care we leave him to say to you that Blair Bros. is the place to buy your clothing.

HOW ABOUT LIQUOR?

St. Louis A. O. U. W. Wrestling
With the Question.

MR. MILLER'S CIRCULAR.

Paragon Lodge, the Most Powerful in St. Louis, Is Cited for Contempt of an Order.

According to statements made by members of Paragon lodge, A. O. U. W., of St. Louis, that influential organization, with 25,000 members in Missouri, and 10,000 in St. Louis, is threatened with a split-up, and disruption is possible over the question of serving liquor at lodge halls. The Chronicle of last evening says:

Paragon lodge, one of the largest, has been cited for contempt and ordered to appear before the grand lodge and show reasons why its charter should not be revoked.

Several days ago it was announced in the Chronicle that Grand Master Workman Miller had issued a circular calling attention to the clause in the general laws of the A. O. U. W. of Missouri, prohibiting the serving of liquor in lodge rooms.

According to Alex M. Keller, master workman of Paragon lodge, its members believe that this was a slap at them. They claim that Mr. Willis attended one of their meetings where beer was served and then issued this circular.

Paragon lodge ordered the circular filed and beer has been served since, it is said. It was for this action that the lodge was cited for contempt.

"Paragon lodge members were very much hurt when they received the circular," said Master Workman Keller, "and took it as a personal affront. Grand Master Workman Miller had attended a lodge meeting when beer was served and nothing was said then. To issue the circular we thought very unjust."

"The story is believed by members to have leaked out through Grand Master Miller, and the resolutions were passed for that reason. If Mr. Miller did have the letter published the resolutions passed by Paragon lodge will be printed in full."

"There has been nothing of this kind before in St. Louis and it is causing a great stir and may disrupt the order. We have the full sympathy of many other lodges."

Mr. Miller is out of the city, but Grand Secretary W. F. Bohn was inclined to think the matter would be amicably settled.

"Grand Master Workman Miller did not inspire the story," said the secretary, "and does not know who did."

"I attended that meeting of Paragon lodge with Miller and neither of us saw any liquor. We were told that beer was served after the lodge had adjourned."

"The circular was issued because the grand master workman, in looking over statistics, found that a large per cent of the deaths in the order had been caused by the use of intoxicants, and he thought the attention of the lodges should be called to the law against such practices."

"Paragon lodge members claim no liquor was served until after the meeting had adjourned, and they thought they had a right to beer in the ante-room after the meeting. They were mistaken, and I think now they see the mistake. It can be adjusted without further trouble."

Thieves in Custody.

Sheriff Bennett, of Henry county, passed south this morning with Ben Motz, and a prisoner who refused to give his name, they having been arrested at Lee's Summit yesterday on the charge of having stolen $30 worth of miners' tools at Clinton. The missing property was found in a wagon in which the two men and a woman said to be Motz' wife were traveling.

TOMORROW'S EVENTS.

The Field Meet of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The first annual field meet of the athletes of the Young Men's Christian associations of Missouri Thursday bids fair to be an event long remembered by Sedalians. A goodly number of entries have been made to all events by representative men from St. Louis, Hannibal, St. Joseph, Kansas City, Joplin, Springfield and Carthage.

There is very great advantage in the pentathlon or association idea over the old A. A. U. method of awarding contestants, in that under the pentathlon plan each man who scores above 250 points secures a bronze, silver or gold medal, according to his ability, whereas in the old ruling only the first or second in a given contest won.

Another striking feature of the pentathlon idea is, it is bound to develop all round men and not specialists. It encourages young men to build up their bodies for the sake of building finely proportioned graceful bodies and not certain sets of muscles to the exclusion of other parts, for money or gambling purposes.

The association has made special provisions to make the events pleasing and profitable to ladies as well as gentlemen, and it is to be hoped the weather will be favorable. Undoubtedly thousands of townfolks will witness the several events, which are to be in charge of field officers from all parts of Missouri.

The fall military band has been engaged to discourse sweet music during the entire afternoon.

RAILROAD RUMBLE.

What Mr. Howard Says Regarding His Passes.

NO USE FOR WRECKERS.

Items of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of "Democrat" Readers.

George W. Howard, vice president of the American Railway Union, has not yet signified an intention to return any of the annual passes furnished him by over forty railroads and the Pullman Sleeping Car company. He says that all of the head men of the A. R. U. have annual passes and declares there is but one known road, the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, over which he cannot get one. The late John Newell, president of the Lake Shore road, he said, was an inveterate foe of the pass business, and the road has not changed in its objection to passes even since the death of its president.

Mr. Howard gave a reason for the furnishing of passes to him that if the railroad companies did not furnish them, the switchmen, brakemen and other employees would have to put their hands in their pockets to pay for the railroad trips of Mr. Howard. In other words, the railroad companies are not only considerate, but benevolent. Mr. Howard said this was the only reason why he had annual passes. He boasted of the great esteem in which he is held by the heads of big railroad companies throughout the country, and named several, among them being the presidents of some of the roads that suffered damage during the strike. He named Mr. Wickes, vice president of the Pullman company, as one who would give him indorsements of irrefragable character.

Mr. Wickes said it was customary to issue passes to the heads of organizations of railroad men. "Mr. Howard first received his pass," said Mr. Wickes, "when he was at the head of the conductors' organization. It has been renewed yearly since. The trouble is all over now, and there is no reason why we should be uncharitable. Mr. Howard has not been asked to return his pass."

been circulated and signed by a large number, but when a suggestion is made to present the petition to the management for final action the timid clerks grow pale with apprehension. They seem to fear the result. The proper way would be to get the petition in readable shape and send it to General Manager Purdy. He would at least give his opinion in the matter, whether it would be in favor of shorter hours on Saturdays or not.

A special from Fort Smith, Ark., says: The officials of the St. Louis and San Francisco road are worked up over the news that a heavily armed body of men have been seen up near Bentonville heading for their lines. As a south bound Frisco express was pulling out of Butterfield it was noticed that one of the red lanterns had been stolen. The conductor began to feel uneasy at this, and when he entered one of the passenger cars a deputy sheriff from Siloam Springs notified him that several members of the Cook gang, armed to the teeth, had been seen between Siloam and Bentonville riding toward the latter place. The railroad officials are exercising extra precautions to prevent a train robbery.

Caght by a Newsboy.

We are informed that one of our most respected citizens and keenest business men allowed a newsboy on the M., K. & T. to work the spectacle racket on him the other day, says the Fayette Democrat-Banner. The trick is an old one and finds many victims. The boy has a gross or two of very cheap brass spectacles, but never shows up with but one pair; these he claims to have found lying on a seat, and says he has no use for them and offers to sell them at a very low price for gold spectacles. Our Fayette citizen is said to have paid $2.50 for what brass and glass he got.

NO SURE THING YET

That Champion Corbett and Fitzsimmons Will Fight.

THE FORMER NOT A MISER.

But He Is the Greatest Theatrical Manager Now Before the American Public.

The mere fact that Corbett and Fitzsimmons have met and after failing to bite huge chunks out of each other's countenances, have signed articles to fight in the distant future need not worry anybody into the belief that the fight is sure to take place.

In the first place the date is something like eleven months hence, the stipulation being after July 1st and each man agreeing to train three months. Then they have tossed off both of the New Orleans clubs and accepted the offer of an organization in Jacksonville where there is scarcely any possibility of holding a contest.

Although the courts allowed Corbett and Mitchell to fight there, Governor Mitchell has taken the bull by the horns this time and in a dispatch says he will prevent it if he has to call a special session of the legislature.

It looks very much as though the match belonged to the same variety as that made last year between Corbett and Jackson, which amounted to nothing but a few slanderous remarks when the time to fight came.

"Domino," writing for the St. Louis Republic, has the following in regard to the two pugilists now most prominent before the country:

Corbett will go down in the history of pugilism as the greatest money-maker that the ring has ever seen. There are not a few who look upon the present champion as the greatest fighter in history, but on the financial ability his remembrance will rest in future years. To the outside public but little is known of Corbett's financial ability.

ties. There are men who set down and accuse him of being close-fisted and unwilling to part with the dollar, but those who know him well know that he is a hail fellow well met. True, he does not go about "blowing" himself on persons who admire him only for his spending abilities, but in his way he is liberal enough. He spent more than the purse he won for the fight with Mitchell in paying his training expenses. During the three months that he was in training for that fight he had with him 23 people. Nearly all of these were under pay, and all of them were his guests. For three months all of his party were not allowed to spend a cent while with the champion. It is no easy matter to figure out what this entertainment cost Corbett. An amusing incident characteristic of Corbett, was told me the other day by Colonel John D. Hopkins, who accompanied the party back to New York after the Mitchell fight. They were all aboard a special train, chartered by Corbett, and after the champion had ordered a couple of bottles of wine from the buffet car, "Parson" Davies ordered some more. Colonel Hopkins in turn followed suit and so did several other parties of prominence in pugilistic circles. When the train neared its destination these persons called in the porter and asked for their bills. Corbett, who was present, burst out laughing, and told them what a great joke he had played on them by letting them order wine for which he had paid.

But reverting to his financial ability, the fact remains that Corbett last year, before sailing for Europe, had over $100,000 in bank to his credit. This year he has blossomed out as the greatest theatrical manager of the season. While it is not generally known, Corbett has five companies on the road. Here is the full list: "New South," "The Cotton King," "Old Glory," "Bobby Gaylor" and "Gentleman Jack." It is here that he has tied himself up so that he cannot afford to fight any man until the expiration of his contracts as an actor. There is no use even for his enemies to deny the fact Corbett is the best paying attraction on the road this year. He never plays to less than standing houses. While his other shows are of good merit, Corbett realizes his own drawing powers, and when contracts are drawn up for him to appear in "Gentleman Jack" at any one theater, they include the other shows. The consequence is, that if Corbett would cancel the dates of his own show, "Gentleman Jack," in order to go into training, the contracts for the other four shows he is backing under the terms would also be cancelled, entailing a loss almost inestimable.

I had a long talk with Dan Creedon the other day about the result of a meeting between Fitzsimmons and Corbett. Those who know Creedon must admit that he is a wonder among fighters, for he frankly admits that Fitzsimmons can lick him any time he faces him, and this is more than any other fighter is willing to say about a man who has defeated him. "Some people say that Corbett will lick Fitz quicker than he did me," says Dan. "Now if I was talking for effect it would be my business to say that I thought Fitz could defeat Corbett, for that would in a measure serve to restore to me the reputation I lost by my defeat by Fitz. But I have always held that a man should be on the square in what he says. I thought not long ago that I could lick Fitz. I don't think so now. When he and Corbett meet Fitz will be a mark for the champion. Corbett can today whip any two fighters on the same day that anyone can mention. Now I admit that Fitz is a better man than I am, but he is making a mistake in going against Corbett. The fight may last some time, although I believe, along with all of Corbett's friends, that he can put him out whenever he wants to. In the first round of my late fight, and in the second until I was dazed by getting hit by Fitz' wrist, I found no difficulty in landing on him. They may say that Fitz was only feeling me out, but I know better. Now I boxed with Corbett for three months and there never was the time that he was not able to stop me whenever he felt like it. Compared to him, Fitz is awfully slow. Corbett is the coolest man who ever stepped into a ring. Leave it to him, and he would fight a week. That is his only fault. He likes to tantalize his opponent by letting him think that he can land on him and then getting away. This is the reason I think his fight with Fitz will last some time. I believe that at any time that he can go in and smother Fitz, but he will be putting in some time encouraging Fitz and having some fun with him. There is not a man living who can land on Corbett, and it is an old-time rule of fighting that the man who cannot be hit cannot be defeated, even though he may not win."

MUCH LUCK IN IT.

The Fight for Supremacy in the National Base Ball League.

That the element of luck entered very largely in the National league championship this year was shown by the ease with which the New Yorks won four consecutive games from the Baltimores.

While the rank and file of baseball men were of the opinion the Giants would win, few had the assurance to prophesy four of a kind. The Baltimores, it will be remembered, got a big start, being in good condition when the teams were called to the post last April. Getting away well, the Orioles kept going along and increasing their lead until they were in a very comfortable berth when half of the schedule had been played.

On some occasions other clubs passed them, but catching fresh wind the valiant crowd from Baltimore would dash on and again wrest the lead from Boston or whoever had passed them.

Hanlon expects to win again but he never will if the New Yorks start out in good shape and the strong pitchers of that high salaried aggregation are in shape.

PREMIUM MEATS.

Acknowledged by the Citizens of Sedalia and Pettis County That We are Headquarters for Premium Meats.

We select our own live stock and do our own slaughtering, and by so doing we know we are selling better meats than have ever been offered to the public. We utilize the undesirable cuts for our sausage trade, which gives us nothing but the choicest cuts to offer to the trade. When you want Pettis county's best buy your meat of Stevenson. Telephone 62.

A California Giant.

"Goliath," one of the largest of the famous "big trees" of California, measures twenty-three feet in diameter at the ground, and twenty and a half feet eight feet further up. "Goliath" is perfectly healthy and solid throughout. It has been estimated that this forest giant, denuded of its branches, would weigh 100,000 tons, and that it would "saw" 2,000,000 feet of clear lumber.

ber. The branches and tops would make not less than 100 cords of wood. Heller estimates the weight of its leaves alone at two and a half tons.

Yale and Princeton are discussing their Thanksgiving game of football in a way that vividly recalls the recent duel through the public press of Corbett and Fitzsimmons.
